Gregory Brown

Income Strategist

OppenheimerFunds, Inc.

Gregory Brown is an Income Strategist for the Taxable Fixed Income and International and Emerging Market Debt Teams at OppenheimerFunds. In this capacity, he is responsible for articulating investment philosophy, strategy and performance to existing and prospective institutional and retail clients. Gregory has more than two decades of financial services industry experience.

He joined the firm in December 2012, when OppenheimerFunds acquired SteelPath, a Dallas-based master limited partnership (MLP) firm. While at SteelPath, Gregory focused on national accounts and the broker/dealer and bank channels for the midstream MLP debt and equity markets. Prior to SteelPath, Gregory worked at firms including Merrill Lynch and UBS, focusing on client portfolio construction, mitigating risk through income strategies, and guiding advisors and clients to expand their opportunity set.

Gregory regularly presents at conferences and client events, educating investors on idiosyncratic and systemic risk in the global debt markets.

Gregory holds a B.A. from Indiana University, Bloomington, and an M.B.A. from Regis University, Denver, and a CRPC® designation.

He is also a former member of the U.S. Cycling and L.A. Sheriff/Chevrolet professional cycling teams and has competed internationally.
