Education

- ▶ Master of Science, Organizational Dynamics, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia
- ▶ Bachelor of Arts, English, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia

Summary

- ▶ Paul McKibbin is Executive Director in the Ernst & Young LLP's Americas Family Office Advisory practice. He has more than 20 years of experience in advising families on the creation, management and optimization of family office services tailored to their unique needs. He is a specialist in the information architecture of family offices and has selected, designed and implemented risk management, reporting and accounting infrastructures for some of the world's most sophisticated family offices.
- ▶ Prior to joining EY in 2016, Paul was a managing partner with Family Office Metrics, a globally recognized leader in providing management consulting to single family offices. Before joining Family Office Metrics, he headed the Guggenheim Partners Family Network (GPFN), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Guggenheim Partners, specializing in meeting the technology needs of single and multi-family offices. Prior to his firm being acquired by Guggenheim in 2003, he was founder and president of Private Family Networks, a provider of secure virtual family office platforms for global single family offices.
- ▶ In 2000, his experiences in working with families led him to found Shaking the Tree Foundation, an independent educational not-for-profit that uses theater and interactive audience forums to teach family dynamics, and to promote philanthropy and the responsible use of wealth among successful families. He has participated in more than 45 productions, and co-authored a dozen of Shaking the Tree's unique Living Case Studies.
